1 Five things are wrong. Find them and make them right.

Muhammad Ali is the story of an Australian boxer. He was world champion when he was twenty years old. At first his real name was Cassius Clay. His new name was Muhammad Ali because he wanted a longer name. His family was not happy about this because they were Christians. Then, the U.S. government sent the army to Vietnam. Ali did not go so he did not box in the U.S. or in other countries. He stayed at home and got a little money. In 1971 he boxed again, but the new Olympic champion, George Foreman, was strong and quick. Ali had a difficult fight.

2 Who says this? Write the names.

- The U.S. government    Cassius Clay
Ali's father    white people    Joe Martin
- a 'Come here to the gym first.' .....
  - b 'Close that big mouth for him.' .....
  - c 'It's Muhammad Ali.' .....
  - d 'It's a good name.' .....
  - e 'Go into the army or go to jail.' .....

3 Look at this picture and answer the questions

- a Who is Cassius's Clay opponent?
- b Where is he?
- c Who is Cassius Clay talking to?
- d What is he saying and why?
- e Are the black men in the photo happy? Why?

4 Are these sentences right (✓) or wrong (X)?

- 1 Ali did not go to Vietnam because he did not want to kill people.
- 2 The government did not send Ali to jail.

- 3 The first fight with Joe Frazier in 1971 was easy for Ali and he won.
- 4 Ali beat Frazier in 1974, and he was the world champion.
- 5 Ali fought George Foreman in Zaire. This was good because the people in Zaire loved Ali.
- 6 Ali got sick and stopped boxing in 1981.
- 7 Ali teaches children to box.
- 8 There aren't any children in Ali's family.
- 9 Ali was world champion three times in fourteen years.

5 The Big Fight: what is the right answer?

- 1 Africans loved Ali because ...
  - a he was black.
  - b he wanted peace in Vietnam.
  - c he was a good boxer.
- 2 George Foreman was ...
